WINDING RIVER
CONSULTING

Gaining a competitive-strategic advantage just got easier!

Managing Partner Bootcamp is where the top-ranked independent firms* and 'firms to watch'* go to develop high-performance leadership skillset and gain the confidence to implement short-range and long-term viable strategies for profitability and growth. In sharpening their skills, they are prepared to make better decisions, change the way they lead, and take their firms to the next level.

Led by subject-matter experts, the curriculum is intense, interactive, and impactful. Sixteen courses focus participants on topics they learn to master:

1. Crisis Management
2. Culture
3. Effective Communication and Difficult Conversations
4. Industry Update
5. Infrastructure, Organizational Development, and Governance
6. Marketing and Business Development
7. Nutrition, Mindfulness, and Healthcare
8. Risk Management and Negotiation Skills
9. Presentation Skills
10. Strategy and Execution
11. Talent Strategy and Millennials
12. Team Building
13. The Modern Learner
14. Tricks and Tips
15. Who are you? A psychological assessment with related analysis
16. iLab

What they say:

... essential training for individuals managing firms

Gave me the tools to be a better leader

... exceeded my expectations

Loved the content; Spot on!

Gave me time to think strategically

I never expected the benefit of the camaraderie

I came away with ideas that I can work with to possibly make a disruption

It was top notch, and I have not stopped talking about it since I've returned

... get good ideas that you can take back to your firm and implement

For anyone managing a firm or even a large office of a firm, this course is valuable training to be more effective and make your practice more profitable
